

CHEBEAGUE ISLAND HISTORICAL SOCIETY

September 2022

“GROWING UP ON CHEBEAGUE” EXHIBIT IS OPEN!

The new exhibit, Growing Up On Chebeague, opened on July 22nd and has been well attended and received. Nearly everyone visiting the exhibit has been able to see photos of family members and friends—current and long ago. Dozens of artifacts are matched to themes and enhance the exhibit. Some of the comments we have received include “I’m going to have to come back several times—there is so much to see!” and “I’ve never seen that picture of my grandfather before!”. Come see us, you’ll want to visit often.

Chebeague Island Historical Society's

Ellsworth Miller Memorial Lecture Series

Monday, September 12, 2022 @ 7PM
at the Chebeague Community Church and via Zoom

Nick Wessell

“Vladimir Putin: Should We Fear Him?”

What explains Putin and his attack on Ukraine? Is there worse to come?

Zoom ID 82962476056 no password required

Photo/ KIRILL KUORYAYTSEV/AFP via Getty Photo/ ALEXEY NIKOLSKIY/AFP via Getty Image Photo/ ALEXANDER NEMENOV/AFP via Getty Images

MANY THANKS TO...

Recently, the CIHS sponsored three in-person events. Pam Cummings spoke on the Underground Railroad on July 25th—co-sponsored by the Maine Humanities Council. On Sunday, July 31st Nathan Hamilton from USM and Thomas Bennett of Prince Memorial Library were at the Hall to discuss Chebeague's shell middens. Some islanders brought indigenous artifacts that they found on the island. Finally, on August 7th Toby Webb presented “Chebeague and the Battle of the Atlantic (1939-1945)”. Thanks, Toby! Toby’s and Pam’s lectures can be viewed on our website.

SALE

Museum Shop Labor Day Weekend SALE
Friday through Monday

MUSEUM SHOP AND EXHIBIT HOURS

11am to 4 pm— Tuesdays thru Saturdays. 1pm to 4pm—Sundays.

Open Labor Day 1-4pm

PO Box 28, 137 South Road, Chebeague Island, ME 04017 207-846-5237

ChebeagueHistory@gmail.com Chebeaguehistory.com