

CHEBEAGUE ISLAND HISTORICAL SOCIETY

October 2021

Ellsworth Miller Lecture Series

The October lecture will be presented by Donna Damon. Donna will share photos and discuss the evolution and importance of islanders coming together for the common good. "Getting It Done: The History of Island Organizations - 1809-2021"

Everyone is welcome to join us on Monday, October 11th at 7PM on Zoom. Please sign in a few minutes before 7 by going to zoom.us and selecting Join a Meeting. The Meeting ID is 82962476056

The Museum Artisan Shop

The Historical Society online Museum Artisan Shop has added artworks of two more Island artists. Please view Clint Jones' stainless steel sculpture "Hauling In The Net" and Beth McNulty's oil on canvas on our website.

The Stone Sloops of Chebeague and the Men who Sailed Them

Is the story of the captains, crew, their families and the Chebeague they knew!

The book has been out of print and unavailable for years. Thanks to an anonymous donor the CIHS is raffling a 1949 first edition in excellent condition! Buy a raffle ticket at the CIHS or in the online store at Chebeaguehistory.com.

Raffle Tickets are $10 each or 6 for $50

Growing up on Chebeague Vol. 2

needs you! By popular demand we are collecting more stories of growing up on Chebeague to be published in 2022. We welcome new authors with stories to share as well as those who contributed to Volume 1. The Deadline is 1/15/2022. For more information and/or to submit your story contribution email to chebeaguehistory@gmail.com or call the Museum 846-5237 and leave a message.

Yes, we were quite musical!

Can you name the musicians? Email us the answer!

PO Box 28
137 South Road,
Chebeague Island, ME
04017
chebeaguehistory.com
207-846-5237
ChebeagueHistory
@gmail.com

September Mystery Photo

Here are the answers!

L-R Don MacIntosh, Dick Dyer, Bob Dyer at bat, Ken Dyer and Doug Dyer in Higgins' Field (now Dayton) c. late 1940s.

Find our fall museum shop hours on our website—but remember our online shop is always open!

Happy Halloween!